Brewing in the Big Leagues

Friday, April 18 . Treehouse . 7:30pm

Mike Dewey, from Mt. Carmel Brewing, will be at this month's meeting to tell us about his transition from homebrewer to brewmaster and brewery owner. If you have ever wondered what it takes to get your homebrewed beers out of your basement and onto store shelves, this is the meeting for you. Mike will spend some time talking about what motivated him to get started and what his experiences were with the various permit processes involved. In addition to the raw mechanics of how to navigate the regulatory hurdles, he will share some insight into the Cincinnati craft brewing scene and the philosophy of Mt. Carmel Brewing Company. Bring your questions and be ready for a whole lot of good information. Directions to the Treehouse on page 9

2008 Bloatarian Open

Mike Carver . Competition Director . mcarver@hotmail.com

This year's Bloatarian Open is less than a month away! For those of you who don't know what it is, the Bloatarian Open is a BJCP/AHA sanctioned club-only homebrew competition that takes place in May. This year's competition will take place on Saturday, May 10th at Listermann's. Registration will begin at 5:00pm with the judging starting at 6:00pm. Unlike previous years, we will not have a regular monthly meeting before the competition, so we should be able to get started on time.

New this year – All homebrew entries and judge/steward sign-ups will be done online at www.bloatarian.org. The link to the entry form can be found on the main page. You should provide the entry style, BJCP →

Election '08

Jennifer Hermann

It's not just a new President of the United States that we will be electing November, but also a new Bloated Board for the 2009-2010 term. We are now accepting nominations for President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Newsletter Editor. If you are interested or have questions to ask, please talk to any one of the current officers or an elder Bloat. November is only 8 months away and we need YOU to keep this club going!

Incidentally, the Bloated Board meets on the first Monday of month (unless it's a holiday) and is open to any and all Bloatarian members. The next of our "Visiting Boards" will meet Monday, May 5th at the D&J Manor. See page 7 details and directions.

Little Help?

"Does anyone have a supply of 6 ft tables and chairs?"

We are in need of 5-6 tables (plus chairs) for this year's Bloatarian Open.

AHA Beer Update

At last count we're up to 43 donated kegs for the conference. I think there are still a few people that plan on donating that haven't contacted me yet. If you're one of these people, e-mail me at bevenson@cinci.rr.com or talk to me at a club meeting. Keep those kegs coming!

Most of the donated beer up to this point is still an undeclared style. When you know what it is you are bringing, please let me know so we can decide how to divide up the kegs. Please let me know by May 1 what you plan on bringing. Or if you've already told me and your plans change for some reason (keg went sour, neighbors killed the keg) keep me up to date.

Last but not least, we will need people to man the Hospitality Suite. We don't know yet which time slot we have or how many which makes planning a little difficult. I will let the club know as soon as I find out. I would like to get at least five volunteers; that would allow us to have three at the booth at a time and at least one shift change. I know it's a lot of work standing next to the only open beer at the conference, but someone has to do it! If you think you'd be able to help out let me know.

BBL Membership Application

Yes, I want to become the best homebrewer I can be, learn more about the art and science of brewing, and especially participate in the secret Bloatarian ceremonies! I certify that I am of legal age to consume alcoholic beverages, with a sincere interest in homebrewing, and am willing to abide by the club bylaws and other reasonable decisions of the club officers. I promise to behave responsibly around alcoholic beverages. By joining and/or attending BBL activities, I agree to take full responsibility for my own actions and waive any and all claims against club, club officers, members, or their designates.

I also have $15 to spare, so sign me up!

DISCOUNTS!

Hey, you! Fancy a discount? Come to the meetings regularly? Maybe you should be there more often seeing as Listermann's will be offering a 10% discount on all items purchased during club activities held at the shop!

All board meetings are held on the first Monday of the month at Listermann Brewery Supply, 1621 Dana Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45212, 513-731-1130 unless otherwise noted. Meetings begin at 7:30 with a toast to cenosilliphobia. All members are welcomed to attend. It's a good forum to discuss club business, new topics, not to mention a good excuse to get out of the house and enjoy a few good beers!

category and subcategory, and any special ingredients (if appropriate). Entry deadline is May 1st.

All BJCP categories are open for entry and entries can be either kegs or bottles. If you are submitting bottles, we will need at least two for each entry (enough for two rounds of judging).

Cost - $10 for unlimited entries. All first time competitors can enter as many as they want for free!

You can sign up to judge even if you're not a certified BJCP judge. We will probably have 18 flights this year, so that's a minimum of 36 judges. With a competition this large we can never have enough volunteers, so sign up at www.bloatarian.org. Remember, you don't have to be a member to judge or steward, so bring your friends from outside the club to help.

Even if you're not stewarding or judging, come by and socialize afterward and find out who won Best of Show. The awards ceremony will take place as soon as we have the scores tabulated. After the competition is over we will be grilling burgers and brats, and I think there might even be some beer left over to drink!

You Can Find Me In The Club...

Club night will be upon us before we know it! June 20th from 7:30-11:30 is the big event. Please stay tuned and check your email often if you are not yet attending. Rumor has it that there will be a limited number of tickets available for purchase for Club Night only (and Pro Brewers Night). It will be first come, first served.

We are still in need of many volunteers to assist with this HUGE endeavor. We will be soliciting heavily at the next meeting, but please sign up now if you can make the commitment. This is not something that just 6 people can pull off! I need at least 12 more volunteers – some to help me with the overall functioning of Club Night and some to booth sit for an hour at our table.

We need volunteers for late night hours: 9:30-10:30 and 10:30-11:30 and at least 4 to assist with tearing down, 11:30-midnight. It's safe to say that if we don't have enough volunteers, we will not be able to pull off everything that we have planned. PLEASE show your support!

The Bloated theme for our booth will loosely involve flying pigs and Bloatarianism. Current plans are underway for mini pulled pork sandwiches, flying pig handles, flying pig hats and scripture readings. If you have comments or suggestions, please email Nancy Foster, jfoster928@cinci.rr.com or Joanne Feiertag, mfeiertag@cinci.rr.com.

You might be a homebrewer if...

you can name at least 10 different varieties of hops, but can't name 10 congressmen.

Beer & Deer Saturday May 24 . 2:00pm

Rob Westendorf

The 9th annual Westendorf Spring Party, christened "Beer and Deer," will be held Saturday, May 24th. Originally part of the Bloatarian Group Brew calendar, the party has grown so big that I no longer have the time to squeeze in a brew session on the same day! I'll just have to plan for it being a day for reducing my inventory, instead of increasing it.

Beer and Deer is our celebration of the coming of summer. We'll fire up the smoker, the grill, and the deep fryer, all at the same time. While the menu is not yet firm, it will definitely include Roxanne's famous juniper berry smoked brisket, grilled polenta, and deep fried cheesecake rolls. Oh, and there might be a homebrew or two available. You don't need to bring anything, but side dishes and kegs are welcome (bottles too.) The party gets underway at 2:00, with the main portion of the food planned for 4:00. We hope to see you there!

Directions: From I-275 take exit 33, Colerain Avenue (on the northwest side of Cincinnati). Go north on Colerain 1/4 mile, to left on Dry Ridge Rd (it looks like you are turning into Lowe's). Bear right at the stop sign to stay on Dry Ridge, and go approximately 1/3 mile to right on Deerhollow. We're in the right corner of the cul-de-sac, at 10296 Deerhollow. If you get lost or have questions, feel free to call at 245-1224.

Indy Craft Beer Festival

Saturday, May 3, 2008 . 2-6 PM

Brew a crowd-pleaser and win a gift certificate to Great Fermentations and a Kinetico water treatment system--first place is a $1,600 Kinetico Reverse Osmosis Water System! And there's more...your winning beer will be showcased at Hot Shotz Pub at 4705 East 96th Street.

The entry fee for the competition is one five gallon keg of beer for the festival. Your beer entry will get you two tickets to the festival and enter you in the contest. If you just want to go to the festival, tickets are $35 ($40 the day of the event) and are available at Hot Shotz.

If you want to enter, you need to act fast because the deadline is approaching.

For Sale

I have 2 Propane burners For Sale. I believe they are 55,000 BTU. The kind that typically come on turkey cookers. I believe $15 each or $25 for both would be a fair asking price!

DUES INCREASE

The Board has voted to increase annual dues by a small margin. Your dues help to provide many behind-the-scenes items that we take for granted at each meeting or event, such as food, cups or other event specific items.

The proposed and approved amendment sets dues at $2 per month for a total of $24 per year. Family memberships still receive the single member rate when the members reside in the same household. Renewing members can pay the monthly amounts to finish off 2008 and beginning Jan 1, 2008 ALL MEMBERS will be reminded of dues payable for the year.

Bosmo sez: Start brewing now for Beer and Sweat!

Divide... and Conquer!

Jennifer Hermann

Have you ever divided a batch of beer and pitched each with different yeast? Do you remember how amazed you were at the difference in taste and aroma? Yeast is such a magical mystery and so much fun to play with. I remember one of my first Bloatarian meetings involved a yeast experiment and discussion given by Andy Griggs at Mecklenburg Gardens just about 5 years ago. The idea was to divide a batch of brew and pick 6 or 7 yeasts to pitch and then discover the similarities and differences. It was an amazingly cool eye opener! We are planning to do the same experiment which we will present at our time slot in the hospitality suite at AHA.

Dan Listermann has graciously offered to foot the bill for this entire experiment! All we need is 7 more volunteers to come and collect 5 gallons of wort in your carboy, pitch it with the "grab bag yeast", provide a proper temperature controlled environment for your yeast, keg the beer and donate the beer back to the club for our hospitality suite presentation. We will plan to have our Beer and Sweat taps set up to organize our presentation. What should we call it? Divide and Conquer??

Dan plans to create a low gravity, low IBU brew for this occasion. The style will be something along the lines of a cream ale. I'm sure that Dan would love to hear your other suggestions (HA!).

There is a Michigan based club that is planning to do much the same thing, but with a hop presentation. We hope to be able to coordinate our efforts! We don't yet know when our time slot will be for our share of hospitality time, but we will need volunteers! Please email Bryan Evenson if you are excited about this opportunity to help with our efforts in the hospitality suite! We will need at least 5 other Bloats to help out!

Dan will brew this beer on May 3rd at Listermann's. This is NATIONAL HOMEBREW DAY! The beer will be ready to be divided between 4-5pm. You will need to bring your clean and sanitized carboy (or pail) with you to the shop. You will then pick a yeast from the grab bag to take home. Please email Jennifer if you are interested in babysitting a beer. I will take the first 7 to respond via email.

Brown Ale Pot Roast with Gravy

Bryan Evenson

This last week I made some pot roast, and in an effort to remember how much I add of everything, I decided to finally write down what I've been doing. Since it's a recipe that involves beer, I thought I'd share it with the club.

INGREDIENTS FOR POT ROAST:

1 T olive oil	1 medium onion, quartered
2.5 lb boneless chuck roast	2 cloves garlic, peeled and crushed
Salt and pepper to taste	2 whole allspice
2 large carrots, peeled and chopped into thirds	2 whole cloves
2-12 oz bottles brown ale	10 whole peppercorns

INGREDIENTS FOR GRAVY:

2 T butter
2 T all-purpose flour
2 to 3 cups reserved liquid
(however much you can get)

Directions:

Heat a large skillet to medium high heat. Coat the bottom of the pan with the olive oil. Season both sides of the roast with salt and pepper and brown both sides in the skillet, about two to three minutes per side. When finished, place the roast and the rest of the ingredients in a crock pot and set to low. Cook for at least 8 hours.

When finished, remove everything from the crock pot and strain the liquid through a fine mesh strainer or cheesecloth. Set this aside and let the fat rise to the top. Remove the fat before using to make the gravy.

To make the gravy, melt the butter in a saucepan over medium heat. When melted, whisk in the flour and cook for a couple of minutes to form a light roux. Slowly add the strained liquid to the mixture, stirring constantly to avoid forming lumps. Once all of the liquid has been added, bring to a boil. Boil for at least one minute, and it's ready to serve.

LEFTOVER BEEF STROGANOFF

I usually don't make gravy when I make pot roast. Instead, I usually make beef stroganoff the next day with the leftovers. Here's an alternative use for the leftovers.

Ingredients:

1 T butter	1 small onion, finely chopped
8 oz mushrooms, thickly sliced	Pinch of salt
8 oz leftover pot roast, coarsely chopped	1 cup sour cream
2 to 3 cups reserved liquid, cooled overnight and fat layer removed
6 oz extra wide egg noodles

Directions:

Melt butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Once melted, add onions and cook until translucent. Stir in the mushrooms and sprinkle with a pinch of salt to help the mushrooms release their water. Cook until the mushrooms are well browned, about ten minutes.

Add the sour cream and the pot roast, and stir to combine. Add 1½ cups of the reserved liquid and the egg noodles to the skillet. Bring to a boil, then reduce the heat to medium and let cook uncovered until the liquid reduces to a sauce, about ten minutes. If the noodles are not yet done, add a ¼ to ½ cup more of the liquid, reduce the heat to low and put a lid on the skillet. Let the dish simmer for a few minutes. When the noodles are done, let it cook uncovered until the sauce is to the desired consistency. Serve and enjoy.
